

MARTIN COUNTY QUILT GUILD

December 10, 2009

Minutes

President Michele Sanandajian called the meeting to order at 7:00 pm. She thanked the members for the wonderful array of hors d'oeuvre and desserts for the holiday party.

Hearing no objection, the minutes of the November meeting were accepted.

In the absence of our treasurer, Jackie Koch, Steffie Foster gave the treasurer's report. A motion was made by Rozann Chubb to accept the treasurer's report, seconded by Margie Merle. Motion voted on and report accepted.

Michele told members that there would be a House of Refuge Planning Committee meeting on Tuesday, December 15, at 10 AM at Steffie Foster's house to begin planning the two quilts for the House. Members will be at the House on Saturday, December 19, from 10:30 to 1:30.

On January 14, 2010, Mary Sorensen will provide the program and, on January 15, she'll conduct her class on "Dramatic Darks." The class will be at the clubhouse of Pinelakes Gardens and Estates from 9:30 until 3:30.

Eyvonne Smith reminded members to sign up for the bus trip to Ft. Lauderdale Quilt Show by the Sea at the War Memorial Auditorium.

Members were also reminded of the December 30 deadline to enter quilts in the Crazy Quilters show. Barb Uttormark also will provide information for members who are planning to enter both the Crazy Quilters show and the Palm Beach Quilt Guild show so that quilts are timely moved from one venue to the other.

In February, the Guild will host another ice cream social as well as our membership renewal.

The podium was turned over to Pam Post, chair of the nominating committee, who conducted the election of officers: President, Michele Sanandajian; Vice-President, Stefanie Foster; Treasurer, Lavonne Gribben; Vice-Treasurer, Shirley DiBernard; and Secretary Mary Getter.

Michele thanked Pam for her work on the nominations and election. Special thanks were given to Jackie Koch for her two years of service as Treasurer and Shirley Long for her service in the last year as Secretary.

Steffie announced the December birthdays and the ladies were acknowledged.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:45 PM.

After a wonderful sampling of foods, the winners of the Raffle Baskets were chosen: Barb Uttormark, Germaine Paquette, and Eyvonne Smith, the winner of the Viewer's Choice among the Challenge quilts, was announced. The other prizes were Judi Gutke, Best Mixed Media, and Ann Cofone, Honorable Mention; Eyvonne Smith for Best Contemporary Traditional and Joan Carmen, Honorable Mention; and Margy Merle for Judges' Choice. Winners in each category received a cash award of $50.

Dori Hawks and Carol Cheek graciously volunteered to chair the committee to plan next year's challenge quilt competition.

The batik raffle was also held.

The meeting ended by 8:50.
